ALONZO TERRY

Alonzo Terry is a gifted vision caster and is the Senior Pastor of Solid Rock Pentecostal Church in Atlanta, GA. During the 25 years of ministry in Atlanta, Pastor Terry has become known as a man with profound vision, integrity, and excellent leadership instincts. He is committed to reaching people from all over the world and he has infused the ministry with fresh vision that promotes culturally relevant evangelism and culturally diverse congregations. He mentors pastors across the nation, teaches diversity training sessions around the country, helping churches to understand and implement a strategy to reach their community. Pastor Terry resides in Atlanta, Georgia with his wife Kathy and their three children; Jonathan, Nathan and Kaitlyn.

GARY ELLIS

Gary Dewayne Ellis, Sr is the Pastor and founder of Abundant Life Outreach Center (ALOC). Over twenty-five years ago, he along with his wife and four children, started the process of turning 119 Chapel Street into a light on a hill in the city of Clarksville. Pastor Ellis is a man of integrity and character and teaches these important attributes to his children, family, staff, and church. He is dedicated to the call of God on his life and to the vision that God has given him for Clarksville and the world

D.G. HARGROVE

D. G. Hargrove has ministered on numerous pastoral levels, having pioneered churches, as well as grown established ones throughout his ministry. In 1990, he assumed pastorate of North Cities UPC in Garland (Dallas metro), Texas, where he currently serves as the senior pastor. He earned a (nontraditional) Master's Degree of Divinity, and a Master's Degree in Clinical Counseling. He holds license as a Clinical Counselor with several organizations, including the National Christian Counselors Association. D. G. and his wife Rebecca reside in Garland, Texas.

DARRELL JOHNS

Darrell Johns is pastor of Atlanta West Pentecostal Church. Prior to moving to Atlanta in 1995, he served as General Youth President of the United Pentecostal Church International. His 37-year ministerial experience includes youth and family ministry, and leadership training. He serves as the District Superintendent of the Georgia District UPC and is the UPCI General Executive Presbyter of the Eastern Zone. His life goal is to develop leaders for the Kingdom of God.

THE MARKS OF A PREACHER

If your idea of ministry is success, comfort, happiness, and tranquility you will want to hear this lesson. “The Marks of a Preacher,” illustrates the evidence we have become the person God has called us to become.

From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

-Galatians 6:17 (KJV)

Introduction

- A. What is our perspective of ministry?
- B. Does our perspective fit a Biblical worldview?

Who is our audience?

- A. Our audience is ALL people (from every economic, ethnic, educational, and social place in life).
- B. Our audience is hurt people.
- C. Our audience is broken people.

What do we do when we are hurt, offended, or misunderstood? (This part has more than an outline could provide. Join me for a perspective that has changed the way I minister.)

- A. Carry
- B. Burry
- C. Stand
